PLAY, EXPLORE, IMAGINE, LEARN: OUTDOOR LEARNING FOR THE ADVENTUROUS!

Outside environments provide us with a vast array of benefits; the impact of playing and learning outdoors, in enabling environments, supports children on a journey of discovery and offers a space in which children can enjoy learning, and thrive.

A rich environment offers opportunities to engage children in meaningful, purposeful ways; children lead their own learning through problem solving, risk taking and open-ended challenges, under the guidance of knowledgeable others. Dandelion will support you to become this knowledgeable other.

You will:

- Develop an understanding of the benefits, impact and purpose of outdoor education
- Understand how to harness and maximise outdoor learning opportunities: understand the leader's place as an educator; understand how to use the environment as the third educator

£50 per delegate.
5 hours, minimum attendance 10.
